

RDN Regional Landfill Crossword

Across

1. This type of waste is not accepted at the RDN Regional Landfill
4. This type of cover is placed over the landfill to reduce the escape of methane gas.
7. Some waste products such as this are handled in a specific way to reduce harmful exposure to humans.
9. This is generated from the gas that is collected at the landfill.
11. This type of bacteria captures the methane gas that seeps through the protective covering.
15. This is an example of the types of waste that are separated before landfilling.
16. This is what consumes methane for energy and is in an aerobic environment.
17. Garbage is covered with soil to control this unwanted byproduct.
18. Harmful waste products are referred to as...

Down

2. This type of bacteria that produces gas at the landfill is in an environment that contains no oxygen.
3. Wild animals do this in search of food.
5. This liquid is extracted from the garbage and is sent to the wastewater treatment plant.
6. This type of emission is known to be harmful to the environment.
8. People are encouraged to this before they bring their waste to the landfill.
10. This type of waste is accepted at the RDN Regional Landfill
12. This type of soil material is placed over top the covering on the garbage that allows grass to grow.
13. This machine is driven over the garbage in order to increase its density thereby reducing the amount of space it takes up.
14. This chemical is the main component of the gas produced at the landfill.