

The Regional District of Nanaimo presents:

NEIGHBOURHOOD EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS TEAM WORKSHOP

OCTOBER 25, 2014 at NANOOSE PLACE

AGENDA

TIME	TOPIC	SPEAKER
8:30	Registration
	Meet & Greet
9:00	Welcome & Introductions	Jani Drew, RDN Emergency Coordinator
9:15	“Firestorm - Out of the Ashes” video A documentary capturing the events of the Fire Storm in Kelowna in 2003
10:00	Communications – Can you Hear Me Now? Learn how communication happens between team members and outside of the team	Jani Drew & Shirley Nicolsen, ESS Team Leader, Gabriola Island
10:15	No One Left Behind: EP and Disabilities: The additional planning and preparations to ensure people with disabilities remain safe	Brent Scrivens, Emergency Management Coordinator at Provincial Health Services Authority
10:45	Home Safety & Knowledge Ensure your home and property are Fire Smart Know what your policy provides	BC Forest Service Western Group Insurance
11:45	Critical Incident Stress Identify and assist those who are emotionally affected during disasters	RCMP Victim Services
12:15	LUNCH Salvation Army Food Van – a real experience in Emergency Food Service “Emergency Gourmet” – VIU culinary students prepare and serve tasty dishes from typical food storage items	Networking: Meet Emergency team members from other communities Outdoor Activities: Practice your skills with a fire extinguisher Exhibitors: Retailers display their emergency preparedness supplies
1:00	Neighbourhood Team Activation Team members are guided by an expert in best practices when involved in their emergency functions	Russel Roy, Occupational Health and Safety / Emergency and Disaster Management Consultant; Emergency program intensive simulation training specialist
4:15	Closing remarks	Jani Drew